35 years of service empowering destitute women,
and providing girl child education

Who we are?

- Sai Seva Sangh is a charitable organization established in the year 1988 by few like-minded people
- Our purpose is to educate underprivileged children in their neighborhood and providing free shelter to old and destitute women
- Started with 26 students and till now we were able to impact 18000+ beneficiaries
- All the services rendered under various units of Sai Seva Sangh are free of cost
- Philanthropists, a group of individual patrons & organizations support the cause through kind & cash
- Volunteering forms the major part of running the organization - teachers, doctors, and helping professional do the service free of costs
- We serve in four major areas - school for underprivileged, home for destitute & old age women, orphanage home for girls and a community service center

Our guiding philosophy - Hands that help are holier than the lips that pray

Our journey so far...

We carefully choose underprivileged students

Most of the students belong to the poor and deprived sections of the society, whose parents are working as Beedi workers, daily labourers, and farmers.

Sri Satya Sai Vidya Mandir school for girl child

- The school aims to provide a holistic educational foundation to children from slums and low-income communities
- Teaching methods not only focuses on academic education but also on non-academic learning to infuse confidence, self esteem and self-awareness
- The curriculum is implemented through lecture, demonstrations and experiments as well as experiential learning through celebrations, events, field trips and workshops
- The students participate in sports, education in human values, fine arts

Healthy mind is healthy body

Residential facility for orphan and under privileged girls

- As an off shoot of the school, the orphanage was started in the year 2005
- Children who lost their parents in tragic circumstances are referred through various government, non-government institutions & individual patrons
- The home also shelters girls who are victims of the society and have a single parent
- These students are counselled, mentored & assessed as per their age and are enrolled into existing school to continue their education
- The children stay along with the old age & destitute women inmates thus enabling a family home atmosphere nurturing love & care

Community Services & Vocational Training

Sai Seva Sangh participates in addressing the community challenges in the slum situated around the school. The various programs conducted are:

- Monthly medical camps
- Special camps for Pregnant women & Infants
- Physiotherapy camps
- Health & Hygiene awareness camps
- Facilitate with government departments for providing water, electricity and sanitation for the slum dwellers
- Tailoring & Fashion designing classes for women
- Cooking Classes
- Digital Learning
- Driving classes
- Distribution of provisions to students' families during COVID-19 Crisis.

Higher Education

- One-on-one counselling session helps students to make an informed choice towards the path of pursuing their higher education
- More than 1000 students have benefited through this program
- Financial support is also provided as per the need and requirement of these students
- They are mostly placed in the stream of Nursing, Pharma, Engineering and in the teaching arena.
- There are several success stories of students pursuing higher education and securing good jobs, eventually creating a positive impact to their families and society at large

Student beneficiary - Navaneetha

- Navaneetha's father passed away due to AIDS when she was a young child
- Her mother supports the family by working as a daily wage laborer
- Navaneetha is one of four children in the family
- Due to financial constraints, her mother couldn't afford her education
- Navaneetha's mother enrolled her in Sai Seva Sangh when she was in the 1st standard
- Despite the odds, Navaneetha successfully completed her B.A. degree
- She now serves as an intern at our school, sharing her knowledge and experiences with her younger sisters

In 2024, Navaneetha is set to pursue post-graduate studies, continuing her educational journey

Student beneficiary - Neha

- Neha tragically lost both her parents at a young age in distressing circumstances
- She is the youngest among her three sisters in the family
- Sai Seva Sangh provides support to Neha and her sisters
- Neha is an incredibly dynamic and active participant in various sports events
- She excels as a basketball player and holds a black belt in karate, with numerous medals at district and state levels.
- She is a dedicated member of the NCC and has undergone training in several self-defense programs.

Currently, Neha is in her first year of pursuing a BSc degree with a focus on mathematics, statistics, and computer science.
