From Receiving Help to Giving Back: My Journey with Sai Seva Sangh

My name is Pabbati Sujatha, and I am the fourth among five sisters. Our family was blessed to receive the support of Sai Seva Sangh, which transformed our lives through education and care. The organization stood by all five of us during our growing years, giving us the opportunity to study and build a better future. Today, two of my sisters are serving society as professional nurses, while I fulfilled my dream of becoming a Classical Dancer. None of these achievements would have been possible without the guidance and encouragement we received from Sai Seva Sangh.

Today, I am proud to give back to the organization that shaped my life. I serve as the Social Media In-charge at Sai Seva Sangh and also teach classical dance to the students. Every time I mentor a child, I am reminded of my own journey and the opportunities I was given. It is a privilege to inspire the next generation through art, values, and education, and I will always remain grateful to Sai Seva Sangh for helping my family and empowering us to build meaningful lives.
